

Mensa Campus Rotenbühl - EN

Who hasn't experienced it? Everyone wants to eat delicious food, but the willingness to cook is not always there - especially among students. The cafeteria at the Rotenbühl campus is known for its fantastic food. If you want to try it out, you have to go to building C of the aforementioned campus.

The rooms are bright and friendly and have a cosy atmosphere. Once you have found the room, you can choose between the two daily menus, one of which is vegetarian, and the optional meal. For the small appetite, it is also possible to put together your own salad at the salad bar, where you can choose between three different sizes. There are also sandwiches, coffee and hot and cold drinks. It is also worth mentioning that there is a vegetarian day at least once a month.

Once you've decided on a meal, it's time to choose where to sit. Whether inside in the cosy room or outside on the outdoor terrace in the fresh air, there's something for everyone and no one has to worry about missing out!

Students with children are also catered for, the Mensa has an extra children's corner, with lower tables and chairs.

Location
