

Studienführer — WiSe 2023/2024

Let's go to the movies

👤 Für Alle

🕒 6. Februar 2024

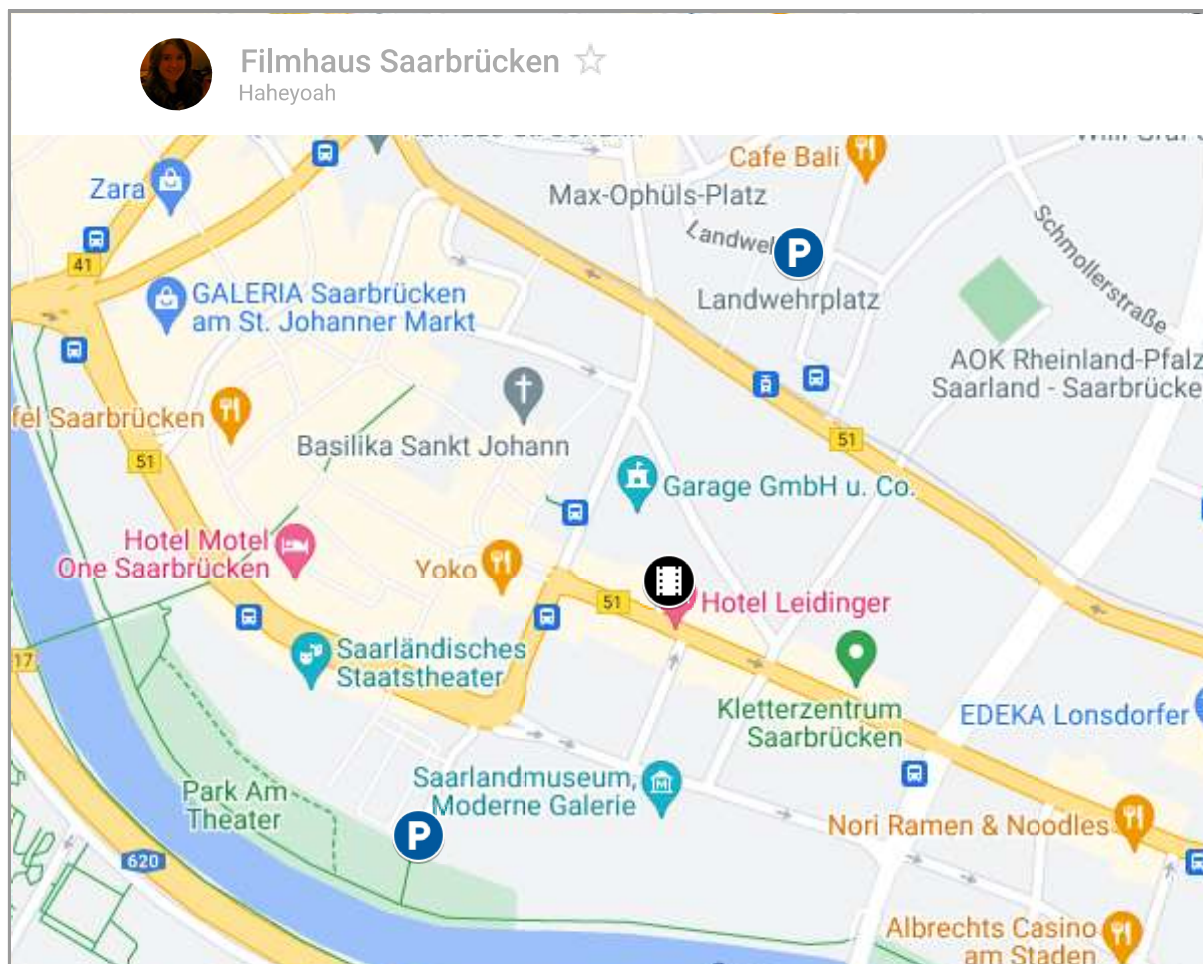

✎ bearbeiten

No matter if it's a rainy day or a day where you just want to sit in a room with the A/C on. Going to the movies is always a good choice! You can immerse yourself in new worlds, explore new things and get to know new characters again and again.

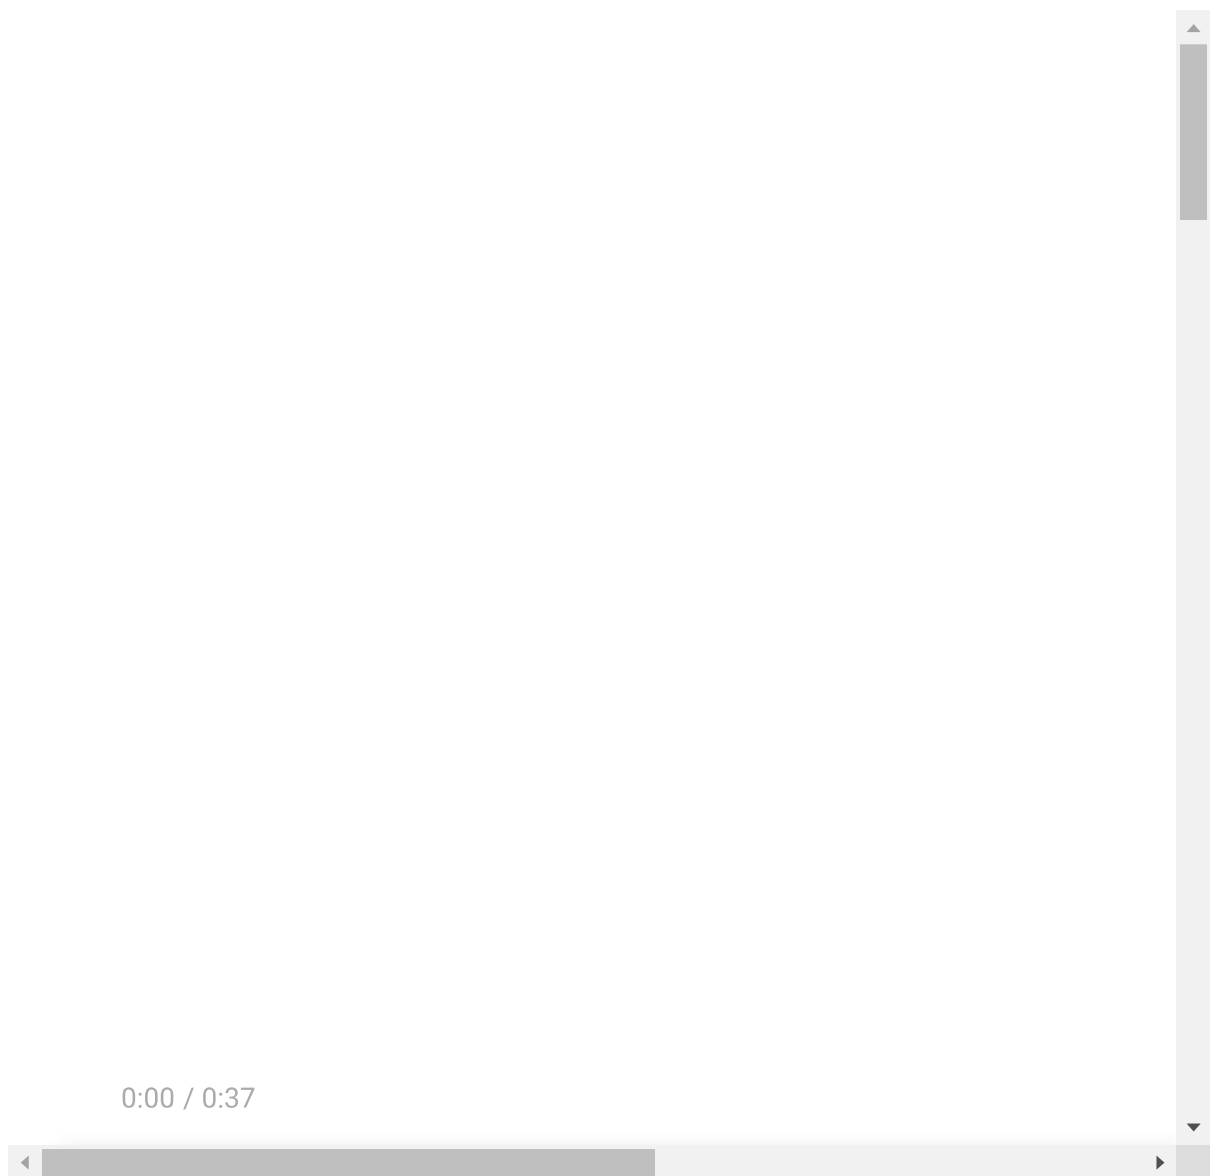

The popcorn in the Passage cinemas is great, the retro-style entrance hall of the UT cinemas is fantastic and the latest, most popular films can be found at CineStar Saarbrücken. Alternative films can also be found in the Filmhaus and the good mix is what makes KameraZwo so special.

In this article, I will introduce you to the Filmhaus Saarbrücken.

In the video you can see the way from the main train station of Saarbrücken to the Filmhaus. You can also find tips on parking and the best way to get there by public transport.

There are many different ways to reach the Filmhaus using public transport. The different options are bus, suburban train or simply walking. Bus lines 128 towards Wackenberg, R10 and 506 towards Blieskastel go to St. Johanner Markt station, from where it only takes 5 minutes to reach the Filmhaus. You can take the same buses back to the station in the direction of the main station. If you turn off the bus stop into Mainzer Straße, it is only a few meters to the entrance of the Filmhaus on the left side of the street in the inner courtyard of the Filmhaus. Line 1 of the Saarbahn in the direction of Sarreguemines/Hanweiler/Brebach goes to Landwehrplatz, which is also only a 5-minute walk from the Filmhaus. If you prefer to see something of the city on the way, you can also walk through the pedestrian zone. The walk goes through the entire pedestrian zone and just 15 minutes straight ahead. You can also see this route in the video.

How to get from Saarbrücker Hauptbahnhof to Filmhaus Saarbrücken

If you come by car, parking at Landwehrplatz is the cheapest option. But the parking garage at the Staatstheater is also just around the corner.

Filmhaus

Band and audience in the court of the Filmhaus

The Filmhaus is located near the Sankt Johanner Markt at Mainzer Straße 8 in Saarbrücken. International films are shown, often in the original language with subtitles. The cinema attracts people of all ages, with offers for daycare centers, schools and people in their prime.

There are also events on offer that you can attend alone or accompanied.

About the Filmhaus

At the end of the 1980s, the listed former barn was converted into a cinema and the Filmhaus was opened in January 1992. With the offices for municipal film work and the Max Ophüls Preis film festival, a central cultural venue was created on one of Saarbrücken's liveliest boulevards.

The Filmhaus has everything a movie lover's heart desires, including:

- Good movies for a new start
- Film series on socially relevant topics
- Film events in cooperation with institutions, associations and clubs
- Cinema education for daycare and school children
- Open Air-cinema
- Movie discussions with guests
- Lecture series and readings

Tickets can be reserved or purchased online at any time, but also on site. Online you can also find the programme of the Filmhaus.

TICKETS UND PREISE

Übersicht über die Tickets und Eintrittspreise im Filmhaus.

UNSERE PREISE (STAND: 1. SEPTEMBER 2022)

Einzelkarte (auch samstags)	7,50 Euro
Studenten/Schüler (Nur mit Ausweis)	6,80 Euro
Kinotag (Montag und Dienstag)	6,00 Euro
Filmreif	5,00 Euro
Aufpreis bei Überlänge ab 120 Minuten 0,50 Euro, ab 135 Minuten 1,00 Euro

cinema auditorium

The movie theater is equipped with the latest technology and the comfort you need to enjoy a movie night. In addition to the auditorium, there is also a cozy foyer that invites you to get together and relax. To ensure that the audience continues to feel comfortable, many parts of the cinema have been renovated and brought up to the latest technical standards (including air conditioning).

cinema auditorium of the Filmhaus

In conclusion, the Filmhaus is definitely worth a visit and offers many different options, even if you don't necessarily want to watch a movie.

For further information, visit the Filmhaus on Instagram:

Click here for the German version/Klicken Sie hier für die deutsche Version

Click here for the French version/Cliquez ici pour la version française

Studienführer, Stolz präsentiert von WordPress.